SOCIETY

THE entertainments with which November has closed have opened the season with great brilliancy. Now that December has arrived and the celebration of the great winter festival seems just ahead, the days until that time arrives, are brimming over with gayety of all kinds. The exhilarating weather, bright, clear and cold, adds to the general atmosphere of animation and liveliness. Already there is a Christmas premonition that is infectious, and more than a hint in windows, where marsh berries and running cedar are already being hung, of the spirit which runs all through the calendar of the last month of the year.

It is justly rated high, because it is holiday time, and therefore brings back to Richmond the gay crowd of boys and girls who are away at different educational institutions, and are delighted at the rebound from school and college discipline and the joys of reunion at home and with young friends emancipated like themselves.

December is not as popular with brides as the autumn months. Still,

Mrs. Egbert G. Leigh, Jr., Mrs. W. S. P. Mayo, Mrs. J. Jordan Leake, Mrs. Julian H. Hill, Mrs. Thomas N. Carter, Mrs. William H. Palmer, Jr., Mrs. Charles V. Carrington, Jr., and Mrs. Archibald W. Battle.

The list of debutantes, as at present announced, includes: Misses Fanny Scott, Camilla Welford, Zayde Branch, Belle Willard, Emily Lyman, Isabel Carter, Archer Joynes, Emma Gray White, Elsie Harrison, Elizabeth Cooke, Jane Preston Boulware, Edith Donnan, Elizabeth Hargrave, Elsie Parrish, Carlisle Minor, Mary Scarborough, Alice Nelson, Katherine Hagan, Fanny and Virgie Tyler, Gay Montague, Anne Traylor, Dorothy Christian, Emily Clark, Mary Chalmers, Jellie Scott, Carrie Lee Vadey, Alice Nelson, Mary McFadden and Mary Irwin.

Several of these young girls, on account of mourning in their families, have not yet been formally introduced, and have thus been debarred from full participation in the activities of the season.

Members of the Richmond German for 1910-1911 are: Thomas Atkinson, Archer Anderson, Jr., John T. Anderson, Charles J. Anderson, Charles B. Antrinn, Henry W. Anderson, Gus M. Altfriend, John K. Branch, Thomas Boling, Lewis H. Blair, Donald M. Blair, Percy S. Boshier, Lewis H. Bochner, H. Godwin Boykin, A. G. Battle, Jr., F. B. Blankenship, H. F. Baskerville, Charles Bruce, John Alken Branch, Poliphon George C. Gregory, William H. Grant, T. Croxton ordon, Eppa Hutton, Jr., Blair, Thomas N. Carter, Charles V.

Carrington, Henry P. Carrington, Robert B. Campbell, Robert G. Cabell, John Currie, P. St. George Cooke, John A. Coke, Jr., B. Palmer Claiborne, J. Hampden Chamberlayne, David M. Currie, John A. Cutchins, H. Stuart Christian, W. R. Claiborne, G. A. Davenport, H. W. Ellerson, Harry Frazier, John G. Farland, I. W. Fuller, W. Douglas Gordon, James W. Graves, B. The Tuesday Dances. The dances of the Tuesday German Club begin with Tuesday of Christmas week. Other dates announced being January 17, February 7, February 28 and April 21. These dates are all full of delightful anticipations for the younger society set of Richmond, which always records the efforts of the executive committee in rendering them charming affairs.

The officers and executive committee of the Tuesday German Club are: Henry G. Hotchkiss, John Alken Branch, Harvey Haynes, Fred S. Campbell, Percy Montague, Jr., William A. Spilman and Albert V. Wadley.

as far as it has been completed includes Madames John Kerr Branch, Henry Landon Cabell, John H. Ingram, Horace S. Hawes, Henry S. Hotchkiss, James D. Patton, Frederick Pleasant, R. Carter Scott, J. Nelson Steele, Jr., Ernest B. Allen, James Augustine, Jr., Richard Edgwood, Slater C. Blackinton, Aubin L. Boulware, John B. Cary, Herbert A. Claiborne, Jr., Fred W. Carrington, Richard W. Polard, Holt Page, C. C. Read, Charles W. Shields, Robert A. Stewart, Thomas J. Stubbs, W. H. Surber, Corydon Sutton and Herbert E. Ward.

On account of the death of Bishop Williams, a debutante dance to have been given by Mr. and Mrs. Preston Cooke, and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison in Masonic Temple, on the evening of December 9, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Cooke and Miss Elsie Harrison, has been postponed until January 3. It will then be given in Masonic Temple, at 9 o'clock, P. M.

Debutantes to be Entertained. That the debutantes of this season are very fortunate young women and that society is interesting itself in them to an unusual extent is quite evident. Mrs. J. Scott Parrish is to give an entertainment in their honor on Tuesday night, December 20, and as Mrs. Parrish is proverbially one of the most agreeable hostesses in Richmond, the pleasure of the debutantes on that occasion goes without saying.

The wedding of Miss Judith Kemp daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy H. Kemp, to Miles Cary Selden, son of the late Richard Selden, of Snowden, Va., was celebrated at 7:30 P. M. November 22, in the Third Presbyterian Church, Rev. R. B. Eggleston officiating. The church was decorated with palms and flowers. Miss Anne Franklin Barnes, of Richmond, and Miss Louise Selden, the maids of honor, wore pink chiffon cloth over pink satin and carried shower bouquets of violets. Miss Lucy Taylor, of Richmond; Miss Emily Puller, of West Point; Miss Evelyn Cottrell, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Miss Mary Sims, of Salisbury, N. C., were bridesmaids. They were attired in white chiffon over white satin and had arm bouquets of chrysanthemums. Leslie Reed, of Richmond, was best man, and the groomsmen were John Parrish, Haslewood Kemp, William Lee Gilliam, Pope Nash and Richard Selden. The bride was given away by her father. She was gowned in white satin, veiled with white marquisette and trimmed in real lace and pearls. Her flowers were lilies of the valley and gardenias. The bride and groom left immediately after the ceremony.
